

City of Sammamish
City Council
Study Session Notes
March 8, 2000

Councilmembers present: Mayor Jack Barry, Councilmembers Don Gerend, Kathleen Huckabay, and Kenneth Kilroy

Councilmembers absent: Deputy Mayor Troy Romero, Councilmembers Phil Dyer and Ron Haworth

Staff present: City Manager Michael Wilson, Community Development Director Kelly Robinson, Administrative Services Director Dennis Richards, Public Works/Finance Director Ben Yazici, and Acting City Clerk Ruth Muller

Mayor Barry opened the Study Session at 6:40 p.m.

Water/Sewer District Assumption Analysis

Tom Nesbitt, of Nesbitt Planning and Management, Inc. and Jack Collins, of Northwest Small Cities Services presented the analysis of possible merger of the two utility districts with the City that was prepared for the City as authorized by the Council.

Joint Discussion With District Commissioners Relating to Potential Merger

Councilmembers and District Commissioners asked questions of Tom Nesbitt and Jack Collins relating to information contained in the report and further discussed benefits/impacts such a merger might have.

Mayor Barry closed the Study Session at 9:40 p.m.